DOLLY DIMPLES IN A MODERN LAUNDRY

At Great Troy Laundry Learns How Modern Science and Mechanics Combine With Care to Make Life Lovely

DOLLY AND THE MINUET ELECTRIC HOUSE

Finds Things There That Are Making Her Home Tasks Dreams--Dolly Is Ues Defi to Public.

APPOINTMENTS FOR DOLLY DIMPLES TODAY

DOLLY DIMPLES has thoroughly demonstrated to the people of FORT WAYNE and surrounding country that she is able to elude detection in any sort of gathering, no matter how big or how small the gathering may be. THE SENTINEL, DOLLY DIMPLES and the public at large, have come to the conclusion that it is a hopeless case to apprehend her, therefore DOLLY has notified THE SENTINEL that the chase must end today. The only possible way to bring this chase to a speedy end is for DOLLY DIMPLES to appear on CALHOUN street, between JEFFERSON and MAIN streets, starting at 12 o'clock today and to remain on CALHOUN street between the above named streets until she is captured. A close study of the "LIFE SIZE PHOTOGRAPH" OF DOLLY DIMPLES now on exhibition in the window of THE BESETTE-ROSE-STRASSBURG store, No. 714 CALHOUN street, should help considerably to identify the woman who has kept all FORT WAYNE mystified. If at 3:30 this afternoon DOLLY DIMPLES is still undetected, she will stay in one block on CALHOUN street, between BERRY and MAIN streets from 3:30 to 4:30.

Under no circumstances will the reward be paid to any outsider. Read the rules and conditions on local page; memorize the following salutation:

"PARDON ME, YOU ARE THE MYSTERIOUS MISS DOLLY DIMPLES OF THE SENTINEL."

If the salutation is correctly spoken and the woman you address is DOLLY DIMPLES, she will admit her identity at once, and the $100.00 in GOLD is yours.

DOLLY will remain here until some one captures her.

BY DOLLY DIMPLES.

Three words will convey my message to you. "I am free." If I am still at liberty at this time tomorrow I will not be my fault.

Today, between twelve noon and twelve midnight I will promenade up and down Calhoun street, between Jefferson and Main, and to be brief, "It's up to you."

My disguises have been so light these past three days that I hardly know how to make up now, and still call the result of my efforts a disguise. It begins to look as though you'll never apprehend me.

Try your best today. Remember the pointers I have given you and be sure you can repeat the salutation correctly.

I will positively promenade until someone identifies me or I drop with fatigue. If necessary, I will stay on the street without my dinner. I do hope someone will catch me. Good luck to you all.

You, who delight in the march of progress, are surely interested in the most scientific inventions in machinery. Really there seems no marvel that human hands cannot accomplish, no modern enterprise but what is equipped with some wonder in the way of machinery. Many of us have grown to accept the almost miraculous achievements of recent invention as a matter of course. Most of us are too busy to give much thought to the subject and are awed and frightened at the sight of ponderous machinery in operation. It won't hurt you.

Those of you, who, like me, are fascinated at the sight of great engines, belts and wheels and the modern costly machinery they operate, should have been with me yesterday when I visited a big up-to-date laundry plant and saw electrical machinery of intricate mechanism.

I did so want to see the inside of the Troy laundry. They did my clothes so beautifully that I have been exceedingly curious to learn their methods. Admittance is so hard to gain in lots of establishments that I resolved to take no chances, so by masquerading as a factory inspector, I was courteously admitted and allowed to go through the entire plant.

The Troy laundry has the most modern equipment procurable. Its machinery was installed at a tremendous cost, including as it does the most recent inventions for scientific laundry purposes.

One is first impressed with its cleanliness and the order that prevails. Things move along with quiet precision, the result of a remarkable and clever system. A complete mastery of details creates the greatest harmony. There are many open windows through which the sweet air filters continually and the employees of the big modern plant seem contented and happy.

Mr. Jones, the genial proprietor, showed me through the establishment and explained a great many things to me in a most scholarly manner.

I saw great flat stuff machines in

TAKES PLACE OF OLD DIAZ

De La Barra Inaugurated President of Republic of Mexico.

NO DISORDER TO MARCH AT EVENT

Popular Manifests Wild Enthusiasm Over the Big Change.

Mexico City, May 26.—Francisco De La Barra, Mexican foreign minister and ambassador to Washington, today was inaugurated as provisional president of the republic.

He will succeed the late president, who died yesterday, until a general election can be held.

Order prevailed throughout the capital last night.

De La Barra was escorted from the presidential palace to the chamber of deputies where the oath of office was administered by a member of the cabinet.

Thousands of people gathered in the streets to witness the ceremony.

Most of the distinguished persons in the capital were present, including the diplomatic corps in full regalia, headed by the ambassador, Henry Lane Wilson, the minister of war, and the minister of the interior.

The ceremony was a grand affair, with music and fireworks.

General Diaz, who had been in the United States, returned to Mexico today.

He is expected to take office as president of the republic.

MODERWELL STIRS UP OLD HARVARD

Fort Wayne Student Criticizes Its Systems as Falling Short.

LEADING INSURGENCY

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Boston, Mass., May 26.—The faculty, undergraduates and alumni of Harvard university are involved in an insurgency uprising among the students which has brought official publications into editorial conflict and has caused even President Lowell to take notice.

This insurgency movement has been concentrating for some time. The outcome is a leading article written by a large part of the student body. It is a leading article in the Harvard Monthly.

Moderwell's declaration that a liberal education is possible at Harvard, and furthermore that the courses are arranged to make it impossible, has set the college by the ears.

Moderwell has the moral backing of a large part of the student body. It is said, and with reason, that the Harvard system of education is in a state of anarchy.

Moderwell, in his article, states that "It is impossible to make it impossible." He says that the Harvard system is a failure.

Harvard is a college of two things, three things, which is precisely what the college was not meant to be.

The undergraduate body fairly make complaint against a system of education which for the most part is a failure.

The Harvard system is a failure.

LICENSEE IS RESPONSIBLE

County Attorney Says Saloon Man Amenable for Employee.

NO OFFICIAL IS TO FIGHT CAUSE

Citizen Can Fight But He Must Give Bond to Pay Costs.

County Attorney E. G. Hoffman has delivered to the board of county commissioners an opinion in which he holds that the holder of a saloon license is responsible for the acts of his bartender and that if the employee violates any of the provisions of the liquor regulation bill the license can be suspended by the county commissioners.

This opinion is based upon a case of the Indiana Supreme court in which a drunkard sold liquor in the absence of his employer and the principal was fined and took an appeal.

The opinion says that criminal intent is not a necessary element for prosecution when the sale of liquors in less quantities than a quart.

Officially Make Fight.

The liquor regulation law does not impose upon the county commissioners, the county attorney, the prosecutor or any other official the duty of taking up these prosecutions and unless interested citizens want to take chances on paying the costs of investigations want to take information saloonkeepers need have no fear of being disturbed.

A case in point was made public in the city court a few days ago when Fred Bohne, who said he was a bartender at the Star saloon and also said that Marion Watt is the proprietor, was fined $50 and costs in each of two cases for selling to minors. He paid the fines and no prosecution was entered against the saloon under the regulation law because it is nobody's duty to do so.

The law says it shall be the privilege of any voter of the city or township to file his verified complaint with the auditor setting out the violation and file at the same time a bond of $200 to pay costs in event the prosecution of the complaint fails.

Although the county attorney, the county commissioners and other public officials are judicially in possession of the knowledge that this man was twice convicted and that he paid two fines without any appeal, his license cannot be suspended unless some voter wants to start and pay the costs of a prosecution.

Mr. Hoffman has also delivered an opinion that will greatly relieve the board in the matter of granting licenses. He has ruled that applicants for renewals must give notice through the papers twenty days before the expiration of their licenses and that they can be renewed the same day they expire.

It has been the custom heretofore to make all grants on the first Monday of each month. If licenses expired a few days before or a few days after it made no difference. Licensees continued in business anyhow.

The work of renewing licenses will not fall all in one day under this opinion. Applicants are expected to come in for hearing on the exact date of expiration and must give the notice of application twenty days before.

ANDERSON GETS 1912 ELKS' STATE REUNION

Elwood and Alexandria Lodges to Assist in Entertaining Gathering Next Year.

ALVIN PADGETT NEW STATE PRESIDENT

Parade Brings Out Lodges in Strong Force This Afternoon--Gorgeous Mardi Gras and Ball This Evening.

Madison county lodges, uniting in the invitation, secured for Anderson the next annual meeting of the Indiana State Reunion association of the Elks, to be held in May, 1912, and Elwood and Alexandria will assist in entertaining the meeting. Officers elected for the coming year were:

President—Alvin Padgett, of Washington.

Vice President—Fred T. Barber, of Anderson.

Secretary—Thomas J. Hedlan, of Indianapolis.

Treasurer—Joseph H. Millsbaugh, of Anderson.

Esquire—David R. Carlton, of Elwood.

Inner Guard—Charles G. Forsman, of Muncie.

Trustee for Three Years—Robert A. Scott, of Linton.

There was no announced competition for the next convention honors, and the election of officers was in each case unanimous.

Passes 1,200 Mark.

At noon today the total registration of visiting elks had passed the 1,200 mark, a figure higher than had ever before been reached at a state convention, while the arriving of the marching clubs this afternoon added to the list of delegates undoubtedly made the largest gathering of elks ever assembled in an Indiana city. The handsome showing was highly gratifying to the Fort Wayne members, who felt that the convention gathering had "made good" in every way.

The gorgeous mardi gras pageant and the Elks' ball this evening will bring the Elks' reunion to a close.

Capt. W. F. Ranke, chief marshal of the parade this afternoon and this evening, appointed Capt. W. C. Cleary, Fred Schneider and Henry Myers as assistant marshals for the afternoon, while this evening the corps will be increased by the addition of Capt. C. F. Driesbach and Walter Immel.

Annual Parade is Held.

The annual parade, which started in its march shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon, brought out a big representation of the Elks' lodges from the northern half of the state and it made an imposing showing for the fraternity.

Some of the lodges were late in arriving, a number of the special interurban cars not reaching the city until after 2 o'clock. Among these late arrivals were the Bluffton, Huntington and Alexandria delegations.

Fort Wayne lodge No. 155, its members wearing sailor straw hats with purple and white bands and carrying canes, was in the lead as an escort to its guests, and lodges from Marion, Anderson, Elwood, Alexandria, Hartford City, Bluffton, Warsaw, Huntington, Decatur and Kendallville followed in order, while state and grand lodge officers occupied places in the line in carriages, a detail of police leading the column. The City Packard band, the Citizens' band and bands from Bluffton, Huntington, Muncie and other points supplying the music.

Uniforms Were Unique.

Many of the lodge delegations were uniformed in unique fashion. Huntington members wore black silk hats and linen dusters. Bluffton's uniform was of khaki. Anderson Elks wore Prince Albert coats and silk hats, while the Alexandria delegation brought the sartorial show down to the minute with a uniform of the harem-skirt type. Muncie lodge members were in blue serge.

The pageant was a literal flutter of flags, pennants, banners and canes, and many features were applauded by the throngs which, lining the streets along the route of the parade, had awaited its coming for more than an hour. The judges who are to make the awards for the parade occupied the reviewing stand opposite the Elks' temple.

Wabash Started It Off.

Wabash lodge, headed by Hon. Warren G. Sayre and numbering more than fifty strong, was the first of the larger delegations to reach the city today, arriving in a special interurban car at 9:30 o'clock. The weather was well ideal save for the promise of a rather high degree of temperature for the day, but the Elks were so delighted at the kindness of the weather man in side-tracking rain during the Fort Wayne convention that they were prepared to overlook

PRIZES ARE ANNOUNCED.

Awards in Children's May Festival at Swinney Park Tomorrow.

The first prize for the most beautifully decorated girl's vehicle in the children's May festival at Swinney park tomorrow will be a silver mesh bag donated by Trenkley & Koerber. The best decorated boy's wagon will be rewarded by a baseball and bat donated by F. M. Smith & Co., while for the most original costume will be given a pair of roller skates, donated by the Seavey Hardware company.

The big event in which hundreds of children will participate, is to be given under the direction of Miss Harker, and the proceeds are for the Y. W. C. A. building fund.

FORMERLY LIVED HERE.

E. W. Strack Passes Away at His Home in Ashland, Ky.

Edward R. Miller, of this city, has been called to Ashland, Ky., by the death of his father-in-law, E. W. Strack. Years ago Mr. Strack was a resident of Fort Wayne, and was engaged in the lumber business in partnership with B. D. Angell, the firm being Strack & Angell.

DRY BY TWENTY VOTES.

Jackson Township Will Not Have a Saloon for Two Years.

An official canvass of the vote in Jackson township yesterday returned today to the county auditor showed that the dry advocates carried the day by a majority of twenty votes. The township had been dry for several years by remonstrance and no saloons were voted out of business.

SKIPPED WITH THE TROUSERS.

Jack Doyle went into the Wile second-hand store on Calhoun street this afternoon, tried on a pair of trousers and skipped with every able-bodied employee in pursuit. He ran into the arms of Sanitary Office Jesse, who captured him. He was locked up, and Fred Williams, who was with him, was also held by the police.

Ex-Congressman Frederick Landis, of Logansport, was in the city last evening.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

ELECTION DID NOT SETTLE QUESTION

Township Pupils May Be Barred from Andrews School—Second Election Proposed.

Andrews, Ind., May 26.—Barring of township pupils from the schools of this place is one of the plans which has been considered as a solution of the difficulty arising from condemnation of the township high school building some time ago by the county health commissioner, and it is possible that this method will be determined upon. The grade school in the town, if repaired, would be of sufficient size to accommodate all Andrews pupils. Those coming from Dallas township would be compelled to go to the high schools of other townships.

One objection which has been offered to this plan is that the money derived in the form of tuition fees for the township children would be lost. This amounts to a considerable sum and is a great help in paying the teachers.

Talk of holding another election on the joint school proposition has been voiced and it is thought that a second balloting would result in a majority in favor of this plan.

County Health Commissioner Fry is of the opinion that some residents thought that the health authorities would recede from their stand and for this reason did not register affirmative vote in the recent election. He says that he will stand pat and the old building will not be reopened. With his stand thoroughly understood, it is thought that the vote would be changed and for this reason another election may be petitioned for. At present the question is up in the air in Andrews.

FIRE THREATENS VILLAGE.

Bluffton, Ind., May 26.—Liberty Center was threatened with a serious fire about noon yesterday, when children of Fred Bolin, playing with matches, set fire to the barn near their home. The burning timbers were blown all over the east part of the little town and at one time four buildings were burning. Fortunately the citizens, who quickly formed a bucket brigade, were able to extinguish the flames with only a small loss resulting.

INDIGESTION

Swap Your Miserable, Unclean Stomach for a Sweet, Healthy One.

Fifty cents; that's all, for a box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets that will bring a smile to your dyspeptic countenance ten minutes after the first dose.

And Meyer Bros. Co. states that if MI-O-NA doesn't end the misery of indigestion or banish stomach distress of any kind, you can have your money back.

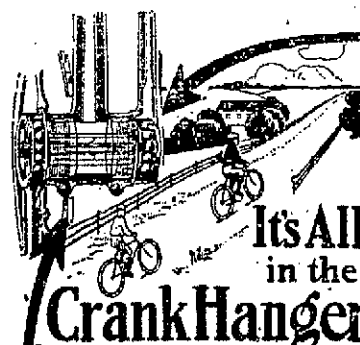

What does that mean? It means that if any reader of The Sentinel suffers from any of the following ailments, and is not satisfied with the benefit MI-O-NA stomach tablets give them—money back.

Gas, acidity, heaviness, distress after eating, fermentation, heartburn, waterbrash, belching, sourness, pain in stomach, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness, bad dreams, night sweats, headache, constipation, despondency, bloating, foul breath, coated tongue, sea or car sickness, morning sickness.

"I am on my second box of MI-O-NA. I received relief after taking two doses. I feel like a different man. I have no misery like I had before. I commenced to take them. I am 64 years old and MI-O-NA is the best thing I ever used for stomach trouble."—J. M. Burger, R. F. D., No. 3, Box 58, Wooster, Ohio.

ELKHART PLANS BIG CHAUTAUQUA

Sale of 1,000 Ticket Will Be Necessary to Assure Meeting—Bryan and Clark on Program.

Elkhart, Ind., May 26.—Providing citizens of this city subscribe for at least 1,000 season chautauqua tickets, an assembly will be held at McNaughton park August 19-27, under the auspices of the Elkhart Industrial association and for the benefit of the General Hospital building fund, under a conditional contract entered into today with the Midland Chautauqua association of Des Moines, Ia.

This agreement was reached at a conference of the industrial association's special chautauqua committee—F. M. Plumer, secretary of the association; A. H. Beardsley, A. H. Belser, L. D. Hall and C. C. Raymer—with S. M. Holladay, representing the Midland association.

The most conspicuous names on the program are those of William Jennings Bryan, the greatest chautauqua drawing card in the United States, and Champ Clark, speaker of the national house of representatives, who is prominently mentioned for the democratic presidential nomination in 1912.

In selecting the talent the committee has made a division of lectures, entertainment and musical numbers. The program is considered one of strength and merit in all particulars.

It is anticipated there will be no difficulty in placing the 1,000 season tickets. Ten days in which to accomplish this is the time specified in the conditional contract.

PLAN MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

Old People's Home at Warren to Be Beautified This Summer.

Warren, Ind., May 26.—For a general improvement of the premises about the Old People's home at this place, plans are being prepared by a landscape gardener and, on adoption, work will be begun sometime the coming summer. Work is now under way on sidewalks and driveways into the grounds. The site of the home affords an excellent opportunity to make a place of great beauty. Fine lawns will be made, shrubbery will be planted and trees will be set out to add to the natural grove that still stands in that neighborhood.

A business meeting of trustees of the home was held here Tuesday. Superintendent Smith's work was commended. Plans were discussed relative to the improvements outlined. Among the business matters up was on the sale of a piece of property in Van Buren, which had come to the home management by consignment of an inmate of the home.

There are now sixteen contented inmates at the home.

FLOATS BEING BUILT.

Arrangements for spectacle at Winona Lake.

Warsaw, Ind., May 26.—Arrangements are being made at Winona Lake for the water spectacles of June 13. At this time Winona Lake grounds, with the exception of the Lake Side stadium, will be opened to the public without charge.

Three floats are nearing completion. One of them is partly decorated, and when completed will seat the fairy queen, who will drive two huge butterflies. One of the other floats will show the "Blue Moon" floating in a bank of clouds. This is the float on which the fairy prince will ride. The other shows a dragon prancing across clouds. The whale, which will be sixty feet long, is being built in the boat house. The skeleton is completed and it remains now to be covered and painted.

While visitors are not allowed in the workshop where the floats are being made, some idea of what is going on there may be had by peeping in at doors and windows. A number of workmen from this city are employed.

WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Mother of Four Small Children Swallows Laudanum—Will Recover.

Portland, Ind., May 26.—Mrs. Annette Bechtell, wife of L. T. Bechtell, attempted suicide at her home at 811 East North street, Wednesday afternoon by drinking one-half ounce of laudanum. The cause of the woman's rash act was not learned, but it is said to have been due to ill health, coupled with domestic difficulties. The husband is employed at the A. & C. stone quarry, west of this city, as a laborer.

The amount of the poison taken by Mrs. Bechtell would have been sufficient to produce death had it not been for the timely arrival of the attending physician. The stomach had been entirely cleansed of the drug within thirty minutes after it had been taken.

It was announced that unless unforeseen complications should develop that the woman would survive.

Mrs. Bechtell is the mother of four small children.

NEW COMPANY ASSURED.

North Manchester, Ind., May 26.—This place is to have another manufacturing concern. Negotiations were concluded this week whereby James A. Peake Skeln Co. of Missouri, will acquire the DeWitt factory site, will rebuild and open up just as soon as possible. The contract calls for 15,000 days of labor for three years, when the site will pass into the hands of the new company. In case of failure the property reverts back to the Commercial club.

SCHOOL HEAD INJURED.

Columbia City, Ind., May 26.—Supt. J. C. Sanders of this city, received a fractured rib Wednesday while moving a book case at the high school building in his office. The case slipped and pinioned him against the wall, the weight of the case resting on the right side of his body near the collar bone. He suffered intense pain and Dr. C. L. FARMER BADLY INJURED.

Horse Frightens at Motorcycle—Bad Smash-up Results.

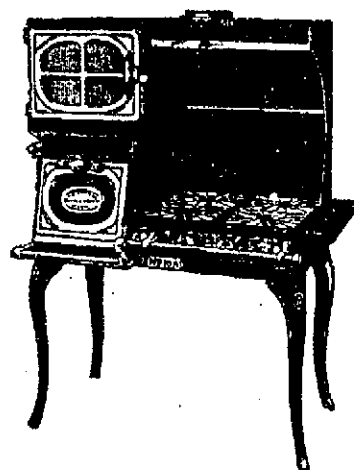

Kendallville, Ind., May 26.—Arthur Blackman, a well known farmer residing northwest of Albion was in a frightful runaway late Wednesday afternoon, in which he sustained injuries to the extent of several bad bruises and a fractured limb.

He was enroute home, when his horse became frightened at a motorcycle, and running at breakneck speed buried him from the rig a distance of several rods, painfully injuring him. He was given assistance and surgical aid was rendered. It being the busy time of the season for the farmer the distressing accident will be a great loss to him, as it will be some time before he will be able to resume his duties on the farm. The horse was unhurt, but the rig was badly damaged.

After an unbroken period of twenty-seven years as president of the republic of Mexico General Porfirio Diaz has stepped down from the seat which he had converted into the throne of a dictator. Finally, though, with reluctance, the old warrior yielded to the pressure of force and made with what grace he could his bow to the arbitrament of events. He has wrought much good for Mexico and he has worked much evil to her people. It has been the easy assumption of academic discussion that the dictatorial and despotic course pursued by Diaz in his long sway was the only policy possible with such a people. But if Diaz has made the way easy for material prosperity he has at the same time made the political advancement of his people difficult if not impossible. Mexico's progress has been sordid. The society of Mexico which he turns over to the new regime is in nothing more enlightened, in nothing better cultured than the society he brought under the rule of his sword more than three decades ago. But at least he leaves with Mexico an industry and a commerce that it should be one of the purposes of the now order to let the people share the benefits of. If the oncoming new government makes, as it announces purpose to make, popular education, freedom of the ballot, reform of the courts and dissolution of the great estates the fundamental tenets of its effort, to lift up the nation and its people the war just ended will be written of by posterity as one of the richest in the fruits of patriotic blood in the annals of revolutionary conflict.

PRESIDENT DIAZ IS OUT.

Patrons of the Fort Wayne public schools will render a two-fold service by attending the field day exhibition at the Driving park, Saturday, June 2. The physical culture aspects of modern public education should by every means be encouraged and there is no means by which this encouragement can better be elicited than to make to the parents of the pupils a comprehensive exposition of what their children have accomplished under systematic training by competent instructors. The proceeds from the nominal fee charged for admission will be devoted to the equipment of the school playgrounds. Both causes need encouragement and assistance and there ought to be a vast attendance of the patrons of the public schools at the Driving park one week from tomorrow.

Fort Wayne does not want a million dollars worth of paved streets to go to ruin in order that a showing of saving ten thousand dollars may be made. What is wanted is real efficiency, real economy, real results. Any other kind of showing is sheer and indefensible waste of the people's money. Whatever course for the recovery of the streets is the cheaper because the better course the administration and the council should agree upon and adopt. The hoarding of a few thousands for want of which public property goes to ruin and decay is neither economy nor thrift. It is something else. Fort Wayne is face to face with the paving repair problem, though, as for that, it has been face to face with it for several years.

Justice Harlan, not content with making oral dissent from the majority opinion of the supreme court in the Standard Oil case, has prepared and filed a written opinion giving in extenso his reasons for the radical difference between his views and those of other members of the tribunal. The principal of a "reasonable restraint" of trade Justice Harlan holds to be "mischievous" and pregnant of grave and undending embarrassments to business. Perhaps the tobacco trust decision will bring forth something newer and more satisfactory to the public mind than the oil case decision.

Memorial day will be signalized in Indianapolis by the "greatest automobile race in the annals of the thrilling sport," or words to that effect. There is abundant promise that the sanguinary features will be all that the most enthusiastic crowd could desire and the mortuary roll and general casualty list such as may become one of most cherished boasts of the lunatics' game.

Swat the fly, of course, after it becomes a fly. But file for handy reference the information that an ounce of prevention is worth more than all the dynamic force of infinite swatting. Don't let 'em breed.

No more in a name than when the late Mr. William Shakespeare desired to be informed as to the essential merit of monicker. A hired slugger and "gun man" of one of the Chicago labor wrecking crews who was killed by a couple of comrades bore the anomalous patronymic of Gentleman. It does not appear that he assumed it, but that it was tacked upon him by parents who did not apprehend his talents. He did his best to live it down. No man could do more.

Lorimer and Lorimerism are absorbing the senate just now, but a few days hence, if nothing goes awry, the senate committee on finance will come dragging in its report on the Canadian reciprocity bill. Then the grave and reverend statesmen will consider that they really have some work in front of them and proceed to take their time about it.

Senator LaFollette, it appears, did not get all of his information about the lumber trust and its making of United States senators from the Lorimer case in Illinois. He has as his colleague your venerable Uncle Ike Stephenson, who made his lumber and to put whom over it was at the time hiked rugged gobs of coin and rough bunches of green were distributed with great lavishness in needed places over Wisconsin.

The little bankers and bank clerks "doing time" in federal prisons for fooling with the national banking laws will not in any personal way be gainers from President Taft's refusal to pardon Walsh and Morse, but they may find comfort in the reflection that the law fits the giants quite as well as it does the pygmies.

Mexicans doubtless realize that the place to have started the revolution was in the capital itself. Abdication of the dictator could have been brought about months ago, no doubt, by the precise means taken to accelerate his tardy resignation, and the bloodshed of the war in the north would have been unnecessary.

The mighty achievement of heavier than air flying from Paris to Madrid will be immemorably contained in human recollections. Though not for the feat itself, but for the fact that it cost the life of one minister of the French government and almost blotted out the life of another.

Banker Walsh and Banker Morse stand a pair of tall guide-posts or beacon lights, as you please, pointing out to other ruthless bankers and frenzied financiers that the way to go is not the way they have gone. At least not while William H. Taft is president.

And this weather, fine for the Indiana Elks, is also a bit of help to the grainfields and the truck patches.

Senor Diaz and Senor Corral took the hint.

HOMELESS CHILDREN MADE HAPPY.

(Indianapolis Star.) There is probably no subject of a social or moral nature that so appeals to the general public as that which has to do with children. For the last eighteen years there has been a private charity, the Children's Home Society of Indiana, organized under the laws of the state, which has had to do with unfortunate children. When one stops to think of the many children rendered homeless by one cause or another the question arises, who cares for the homeless, friendless, abandoned and neglected child? This question has been answered by the Children's Home Society of Indiana in that it has placed in foster family homes more than fourteen hundred such children. Many of these children came to the society after they had been kept in county orphan's homes for years, not knowing what family or home life meant. Six of such children came to the society a year or two ago who had been in a county orphanage for terms of from six to eleven years. They were all placed in family homes within six weeks and have stayed in such homes. What does this mean to the child? Changed from dependence to independence, from institutional life to the free, independent life that is their due, with advantages as good as though they were born in the good family.

There is no greater charity than this. Then, the other side: How many homes have an aching void because there are no happy children in the home? How many homes have been made happy and glad through the agency of the Children's Home Society of Indiana, when their field workers have placed children with them? One young man and his wife have given orders for at least five children, such as may be found needing a good home. Three of the five have already been taken into this home, two of whom are sisters. Another Christian family took three, two sisters and a brother, one of whom was a hopeless cripple. Christian charity! Where do you find greater?

Twenty-five of such children and homes were made happy by the placement of children during the month of April. After these children are placed they are kept under the supervision of the society until they become of age or are legally adopted. The work of placing and supervising these children is done by the district superintendents or field workers of the society. A number of the friends of the homeless children of the state are organizing in this city to help in this great charity. The greatest need at this time is a larger fund to do a larger work.

All the work of placing and supervising these children is done through charity, and costs much money in traveling and other expense. The work is just such as you would like to do if you had the time and opportunity. What you can not do yourself you can help another to do. The present plan is to hold what is called a Children's Home day in Indianapolis, when the ladies will sell tags to everybody who wants to help in this cause. No certain price is fixed, but each is to do all he can to help and pay as much as it pleases him for a tag. The day fixed for this campaign is Saturday, the 27th day of May. The leading social workers will be interested in doing something to aid the children.

FIGHTING TO SAVE LORIMER.

The question at issue in the United States senate over the Lorimer investigation is not whether the case shall be reopened. That feature of the contest appears to be settled. Even Lorimer's friends admit that another investigation is inevitable. But his standpat supporters want the investigation to be conducted by the committee on privileges and elections. The committee is composed of Senators Dillingham, Gamble, Heyburn, Clapp, Sutherland, Bradley, Jones, Oliver and Kenyon. Republicans: Bailey, Paynter, Johnston, Fletcher, Kern and Lea, democrats. Of this number, Dillingham, Gamble, Heyburn, Sutherland, Bradley, Jones, Oliver, Bailey, Paynter, Johnston and Fletcher are standpatters, friendly to Lorimer. Clapp, Kenyon, Kern and Lea are progressives.

The La Follette resolution which is now up for consideration in the senate, names a special committee, Works of California, McLean, of Connecticut, Townsend of Michigan, Kern of Indiana, and Pomerene of Ohio. One progressive republican and two standpatters, and two progressive democrats. Mr. La Follette urges the necessity of a committee of new members because the old members have all voted on the question and are on record either as Lorimer partisans or in favor of ousting him.

If the resolution is sent to the committee on privileges and elections—and it appears likely that it will be because it will receive the support of reactionary democrats and republicans alike—Mr. Lorimer will be investigated by a friendly committee. That is the meaning of the contest now before the senate. In addition to the case being tried by a committee of Lorimer supporters, a vote to send it to the committee on privileges and elections will mean, in all probability, the delaying of action in the case until late into the regular session next winter, while the progressives are urging a speedy investigation and an early vote.

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

HONOR A PASTOR OF FORT WAYNE

Dr. Zartman Chosen Delegate to World's Religious Convention.

MEETS IN SCOTLAND

At the triennial meeting of the general synod of the Reformed churches of the United States, which closed its sessions of ten days on Thursday of this week at Canton, O., Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman, of this city, was elected by the synod as a delegate to the pan-alliance of the Reformed and Presbyterian churches to be held at Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1913, a world's convention that will bring together the representative men of both these denominations. Dr. and Mrs. Zartman will attend the sessions of this great body and during their trip abroad will also visit the Holy Land and other places of interest.

Dr. and Mrs. Zartman returned Thursday evening from attending the

TWO EVENTS ON THE SAME DAY

Public School Graduation and Sunday School State Convention.

WILL BE ON JUNE 10

It is altogether probable that Saturday, June 10, will bring to Fort Wayne the largest crowd of the year.

Two events of importance and of county-wide local interest are scheduled for that day. One is the graduating exercises of the district schools of the county. The other is the big day of the Sunday school state convention, which is in session that week.

The graduates of the county public schools this year number 215. They come from every township and the exercises will bring here not only the friends of each of the graduates but also the friends of the public schools generally.

The state convention of the Indiana Sunday school association commences on Thursday. Its sessions will continue four days and Saturday, June 10 will be the day, no doubt, that will bring here more of the county Sunday school workers than any other, the local management having arranged a great program for that day.

The eminent speakers who will be on the program that day will be Dr. Cornelius Woelfkin, of Rochester, N. Y., one of the ablest pulpits orators of the nation; Marion Lawrence, of Chicago, general secretary of the World's Sunday School association; Dr. M. S. Littlefield, of New York, renowned as preacher and author; Dr. McElfresh and Rev. W. A. Brown, of Chicago; and Miss Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, of Corinth, Miss., the teacher of the men's great Bible class in that city.

An event of the evening of that day will be the men's street parade, in which over 3,000 men will be in the line of march. This will be followed by two great meetings, one held at the First Presbyterian church and the other at the First Baptist church.

REV. DR. J. F. VICHERT

Principal Speaker at Banquet Held in Mishawaka.

Rev. J. F. Vichert, the pastor of the First Baptist church, was at Mishawaka this week and at a banquet held by the Brotherhood of the Baptist church there was the principal speaker. The Times of Mishawaka, gives an extended account of the banquet and in commenting on the address of Dr. Vichert says:

"The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. J. F. Vichert, D. D., of Fort Wayne, who is pastor of the First Baptist church in that city and is president of the Baptist state convention. His address was on the topic, 'The Biggest Thing in Life.' This he declared was religion and he pointed out the fact that it develops manhood and character. He is an influential speaker and his address was listened to with deepest interest. At the close of the meeting he was accorded a vote of thanks. The banquet was the final social session of the organization for the present season and it proved to be one of the most successful affairs of its kind yet given by the Brotherhood."

MEMORIAL SUNDAY SERMON

Preached in Morning at Grace Reformed Church.

The Memorial day sermon will be preached next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Grace Reformed church by the pastor, Rev. A. K. Zartman, whose theme will be "The True Patriot." The Grand Army posts, the Sons of Veterans, the Spanish War veterans and other military organizations of the city will attend the services in a body.

sessions of the general synod at Canton, as did also L. W. Hills, who was the lay delegate to the St. Joseph classis. Mrs. Zartman represented the missionary societies of the classis. The laymen of the denomination and the missionary societies held conventions during the sessions of the synod.

The synod brought together over 400 delegates from the different states. Dr. James I. Good, of Reading, Pa., presiding as chairman. Many topics of great importance were discussed, among them being greater activity and work in home and foreign missions and the question of the church union of the Reformed and Presbyterian churches. On the latter question the synod voted almost unanimously in favor of church union. Such church union, Dr. Zartman says, will be one of the important events of the near future.

The laymen's convention was a most interesting one. There were 800 delegates in attendance and during the sessions an address was made by ex-Vice President Fairbanks.

AT THE COLONIAL.

A cowboy who has been kept cooped up on a western ranch the greater part of his life is apt to have rather vague ideas of eastern conventions, and things are apt to take a humorous turn when he makes his first appearance in the east. The visit of a rich eastern man to his western mines resulted in his making the acquaintance of two of the wildest and wildest, through a stage coach hold-up. The eastern man had a large amount of money with which to pay off his men at the mines and two desperadoes, becoming aware of it, plan the hold-up, which is successfully pulled off; the eastern man and his party, including a French count, being tied to a tree. The cowboys appear on the scene, give chase and capture the robbers and return the money. They are invited to visit the east. They accept, and appear in clothes that are so loud that they talk. They finally wind up by unintentionally insulting the French count's daughter. They are challenged to a duel and accept. The count is steered around to where they are giving a little exhibition of their skill with firearms and he concludes that life is worth more than honor and leaves for that dear France. All of this you will see in the film, "Stability and Nobility" at the Colonial today.

SOCIETY

The leading society event of today was a bridge given by Miss Alice Worden, of West Wayne street, for her college friend and guest, Mrs. Charles Bush, of Kansas City, Mo. A pretty arrangement of a profusion of pink and white snapdragon and carnations and tulle cards tied with pink ribbons formed a dainty setting for this summer day party and the young ladies who numbered players for ten tables, made a pretty picture in their light and airy summer gowns. Delicious cool refreshments were served after the game.

Mrs. Allen Lowry, of West Main street, gave a beautifully appointed dinner party last evening for a few friends. The table was very handsome with its decoration in purple and white, as Mr. Lowry is an Elk. Purple iris and dogwood were the flowers used on the table and in the dining room.

Two brides-elect who were guests of honor at a beautiful party given last evening by Miss Matilda Mettler, of 515 East Jefferson street, are Miss Josephine Herber, who is to wed Stephen A. Sallot on May 31, and Miss Alice Klug, whose marriage to Herman J. Berghoff is set for June 1. Progressive pedro was the particular amusement of last evening, and the guests were intimate girl friends of the Misses Herber and Klug. The rooms had a tasteful decoration in green and white. The guests included besides Misses Herber and Klug, Misses Viola Harkender, Caroline Klug, Addie and Rose Luley, Desu-Kahoe, Margaret Murphy, Nora Kreese, Cecelia Mettler, Cecelia Baker, Mary Potthoff, Ludmilla Lauer, Ada Schuler, Helen Nussbaum and Miss Wenner, of Pittsburg.

Mrs. J. E. Beahler and daughter, Marie, are planning to spend the coming week at Winona Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Hanna have returned from Rome City, where they were guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Houk have as their guest Mrs. Louis J. Houk, of Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Loesch will give a family dinner party this evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Palmer, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nill, of Lake George. This is the natal anniversary of Mr. Palmer and that is the occasion for the dinner party.

Mrs. Lee Ninde, Mrs. Frank I. Brown, Mrs. Allen Hamilton and the Misses Knight and Hoffman were guests this afternoon of Mrs. George Wall at a garden party which she gave at her home in Lima, O.

The Auburn Daily Courier of May 25 compliments in high terms the singing of Mrs. Clara Zollars Bond and the accompaniment of Miss Holene Spindler at a concert they gave on Wednesday evening at an entertainment given by the Auburn Musical club.

The members of the D. D. club gave a picnic party yesterday afternoon in Wetser park that afforded a number of young people a tiptop good time. Refreshments were served during the time. There were present Misses Ruth Helt, Roselle Stolt, Mary Waldman, Amelia Braun, Catherine Waldman, Genevieve Sulzer.

Miss Mary Engleking, who is to be a June bride, was the guest for whom Misses Kramer and Linnemeyer gave a china shower last evening at the home of Miss Linnemeyer. The rooms were prettily decorated with white and red pennants. The guests were the Misses Roemer, Knothe, Bencke, Huxoll, Bennekamp, Hermann and Kramer.

A party of young ladies met last evening at the home of Misses Martha and Bertha Mennewisch, of 323 East Jefferson street and organized a club that they will call the Dolly Dimple club. The club is planning to take a two weeks' outing at Rome City during the summer. The members are Misses Clara and Edith Kayser, Minnie Leasberg, Bertha Balzer, Martha and Bertha Mennewisch. Curried Asparagus.

Prepare the following sauce: Cut an onion and an apple in slices, fry them in hot butter, add a teaspoonful of curry powder and a tablespoonful of flour. Mix all together and cook gently, add a teaspoonful of stock, stir until thick and let simmer a few minutes. Have ready some asparagus carefully stewed. Place on a hot dish and pour the sauce over it and serve immediately.

Pineapple Pie.

Peel and eye the pineapple and tear it into bits with a silver fork, rejecting the hard core. Line a rather deep pie plate with rich paste, spread on it the pineapple in layers with sugar; the amount of the latter must be determined by the variety and acidity of the fruit, the small strawberry pine needing more sugar than the milder sugar loaf. Round the fruit up so that it may be thickest in the center, and when all is in, dust over with one teaspoonful of flour. Wet the rim of the paste and cover with an upper crust. Bake thirty minutes in a hot oven.

all times. They are good looking and light in weight, therefore make excellent walking, traveling or autoing coats. Unlike the fitted tailored models of past seasons, that required skilled workmanship to make them presentable, these loose coats may be made at home without even the assistance of a professional dressmaker.

In Paris for these wraps satin still holds its own, but crepe de chine, tulle and pongees have been added to the list, and if one can afford silk, there is nothing so entirely satisfactory.

In reference to making this coat, I wish to say that the woman who knows only the least bit about sewing need not hesitate to attempt the work; for it is as easy to complete as a kimono, as it does not require fitting. To copy it for the average person only seven and three-quarter yards of twenty-seven inch goods, or six and one-eighth yards of thirty-six inch goods will be needed.

was given Miss Louise Bilske, of 617 St. Martin's street. Dinner was served the company at 6 o'clock. The guests from out of town were Misses Louise Desjean and Mabel and Caroline Bilske, of Indianapolis, Irene Boltman, Celeste Greenauer and Pauline Lambach, all of Vincennes. Music and games were the amusements after dinner.

Albert S. Bond, president of the County club, gave a dinner for twenty covers at the clubhouse last evening for the board of directors and special committee appointed to attend to the opening of the club on May 31. Dinner was served by Mr. Keller, caterer and manager of the club, and the cuisine was excellent. Mr. Bond was presenting a handsome Masonic emblem combining the Scottish and York rite insignia with diamond setting.

Miss Marguerite Schmidt, of 1813 Hillside avenue, entertained a few friends, all schoolmates, on Wednesday afternoon, in celebration of her eleventh birthday anniversary. Both afternoon and evening were spent in having a pleasant time with the playing of games and with music and delicious supper. There were present Bertha Koenig, Velma Bahr, Hilma Puchhaber, Marie Pfeiffer, Velma Fiegel, Leola Toenges, Edna Krueger, Elizabeth Mager and Elsie Schmidt.

The Art School association is making plans to give a benefit bridge on the afternoon of June 2, and have secured permission to use the garden of the Holman Hamilton residence, southwest corner of Clinton and Lewis streets, for the purpose. Miss Mary Knight is chairman of the invitation committee and score cards will be sold for fifty cents. The women members of the art association have the bridge party in charge. Previous bridge benefit parties have met with great success and the fact that this will be a garden party with plenty of shade and quiet to make the scene attractive will no doubt increase interest in the cause for giving it.

Miss Rosella Langard was the honoree guest on Wednesday evening at a very pretty party given by Misses Catherine Shea and Loretta Conroy at the home of Miss Shea, and again last evening at the home of Miss Irma Foust, of East Columbia street. Pink pennies formed the center decoration of the supper table last evening and white ribbons extended from the chandelier to the corners of the table. Other delights of the evening which Miss Foust had provided were games and a shower of pretty gifts from the guests. At the Wednesday party the decorations were a pretty arrangement of bride roses and ferns in the center of the table and white tulle bows on baskets of heart shaped candies that each one received.

Mrs. Henry Horstmeier and Mrs. John Horstmeier entertained at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Bertha Brandt who is to be married early in June, to August Horstmeier. Many useful and pretty gifts were presented to Miss Brandt by the hostesses and guests. Cards and a fine supper were the entertainment. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. Witte, Mr. and Mrs. T. Buch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Band, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horstmeier, Mr. and Mrs. John Horstmeier, Mrs. Henry Horstmeier, Mrs. Lee Webb, Mrs. George Stanton, Misses Della and Alma Bock, Minnie Becker, Bertha Brandt, Clara Bultemeyer, Thilo Holle, Hannah Ruff, Emma Graham and Messrs. August Bultemeyer, Will and Charles Bultemeyer, August Horstmeier, Otto Schoenher, Arthur Yergens, Henry Paul and Herbert Horstmeier.

Not often is a young girl permitted the opportunity to have so beautiful a celebration of her birthday anniversary as Miss Corinne Bltner, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bltner, of South Harrison street, had last evening from 5 to 10 o'clock. To tell all the pretty things or all about the arrangements would take too much time, besides only those who made a visit to the basement floor of the Bltner home on some previous occasion of feasting can understand how cool it was and how substantial and tempting was the supper. Long tables were made into one and there were wide curly ribbons in pink and white crepe paper festooning the walls. The table was lovely with three bowls of pink roses, sweetpeas and other flowers and two white cakes standing and decked in pink candles trosted between. At each plate was a pink bordered napkin and a small basket filled with pink and white sweetpeas and plumose which each guest took home with her. Cake and ice cream were in pink and white colors and Miss Corinne and many of her friends wore pink bows of ribbons so that the dainty colors of the party were not confined to the decorations and the supper which was served at half-past 8 o'clock. Before supper the guests found their seatmates at the

Why Society Women Have Pretty Faces

"How often so many of us admire the beautiful complexion of society women and wonder why," writes Mrs. Maryn, authority on beauty matters, in the Boston Post. "Their good looks and pretty faces are generally the result of the greatest care and precaution in using beautifying preparations."

"The day is passed when powder finds favor with the knowing ones. It has been found to clog up the pores and cause rough, sallow complexions. Instead of powder women generally would use a simple, inexpensive lotion made by dissolving four ounces spumax in one-half pint hot water with two teaspoonfuls glycerine added, the matter of beautiful, charming faces would soon come to be a common thing."

"This lotion clears and beautifies the skin as no other preparation will. It does not show like powder or rub off so easily and for taking away that shiny, oily, sallow look is unequalled."

table by selecting strands of ribbon that had been clustered about the electric dome in the upstairs diningroom. With each ribbon they also found a number that designated the number for the rest of the evening. Each number also had to be matched by a pretty souvenir for which the girls had an outdoor hunt. The souvenirs were card photographs of the young hostess. After supper the guests made dollies of peanut shells and dressed them. Miss Irene Boshler won the prize for the best looking doll. A rapid travel contest in which they guessed names of places by objects proved an interesting game and Miss Jennie Duemling won the prize for that. There were bowls of garden flowers in all the rooms and pink shaded lights and festoons of ribbon made everything extremely pretty. Mrs. Bltner was assisted at supper time by Mrs. Charles Hite and Miss Estella Graham, and Mrs. Hite especially lent assistance during the various contests for amusement. Those invited were Misses Jennie Duemling, Dorothy Savers, Estella Graham, Dorothy Willing, Rosamond Townsend, Hilda Heller, Esther Miller, Beatrice Miller, Edith Tagtmeyer, Jane Safford, Persis Bond, Lenore Garwood, Lorena Schust, Agnes Philley, Irene Jones, Jeanette Boshler, Pauline Sellers, Helen Norton, Hazel Taite, Lucille Ault, Magdaline Mungovan, Nina Graham and Katherine Brannan.

Lhamon—Gessinger.

A pretty but quiet wedding took place on Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride and groom, 1232 Harmer street, when Miss May Gessinger, of Decatur, and Mr. Chauncey Lhamon, chief engineer at the Bass foundry, were married. Rev. W. A. Griest, of Simpson M. E. church, officiated. Miss Clara Gilmore, of Decatur and Mr. Vernon were the attendants. A supper was served after the marriage. The bride is a highly esteemed young lady of Decatur and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Gessinger, of Decatur.

Miller—Bryan.

Miss Lucell Bryan and Mr. Frank J. Miller were married at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller of 311 East Leth street, on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, by Rev. C. D. Rarey, of Bethel Evangelical church. Only the immediate relatives were present at the wedding. For the present the bride and groom will make their home with Mr. Miller's parents. An elegant supper was served the wedding party after the marriage service.

Thiebolt—Wiggins.

Miss Maude W. Wiggins and Mr. Fred W. Thiebolt were married on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. J. F. Vichert, at the parsonage of the First Baptist church. Immediate friends were present at the ceremony. The bride and groom left at once for a trip to Denver and on their return will be at home at 1212 East Brighton avenue. Mr. Thiebolt is a switchman in the employ of the Pennsylvania.

Stodard—Kiger.

Mrs. M. C. Kiger, a prominent business woman of 123 West Wayne street, and Mr. E. W. Stodard, of Indianapolis, were married on Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Feigert, of Fairfield avenue. After a trip east Mr. and Mrs. Stodard will be at home in Indianapolis at the Mayana apartments. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jacob Miller.

TWO RECIPES FOR COOKING BANANAS.

In Hawaii the banana is a favorite article of food, not alone as a delicacy but as an actual commodity. The natives of the island have dozens of disguises for the fruit and visitors agree that the American knows very little of the possibilities of the long golden tube with its fragrant fruit filling. It is fried, baked and stewed in Hawaii, but there are two ways in which it appears at dessert which are worthy of imitation by the American. Banana pudding and banana cake are delicious delicacies.

For banana pudding slice six bananas, ripe ones preferred, and stew them with very little water. Beat to a pulp when done, add four tablespoonfuls of sugar and turn them into a baking dish. Rub a tablespoonful of butter and one of flour smooth and mix with a half pint of cocoanut milk. Place on the stove and stir until boiling. Remove from the stove and when cool add the yolks of three eggs. Beat the white of the eggs to a froth, stir in the custard slowly, add four tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and a quarter of a grated nutmeg. Pour over the bananas and bake in a moderate oven for a half hour.

Banana Cake.

Banana cake is made by beating a quarter of a cup of butter to a cream and adding a half cup of sugar and one egg. When very light stir in enough sifted flour to make a stiff dough. Roll into a thin sheet and line a square shallow baking pan with the sheet. Peel five ripe bananas and chop fine. Place them over the crust in the pan, sprinkle over them a half cup of sugar, the pulp of five tamarinds, soaked in a quarter of a cup of warm water and squeeze over all the juice of two oranges. Put on top a tablespoonful of butter.

operation which turned out lovely work.

A wonderful thing was an automatic drier. The wet clothes are hung on a revolving line, which passes through an opening into a heated dry room, revolves slowly about there till the clothes are dry and then passes on out another opening. An automatic appliance unhook the dry clothes, drops them into a basket, and the empty hooks pass on to be refilled again.

The Troy Laundry has its own water softeners, and use almost one hundred thousand gallons of softened water daily. Every bit of work is accomplished with care as to the minutest detail.

I shall always be glad that I visited Fort Wayne, for when I return to dear old London I will carry with me some mighty original ideas for the perfection of a home.

You are amazingly progressive; you quite take my breath away. Every day some new "yanked" idea makes your English cousin sit up and take notice. My cute little cottage into which I moved a couple of days ago is a source of unending wonder to me. Fifi's continual "Mon Dieu, Madame, quelle venez, ici!" has become monotonous and annoying. If I should come every time she called me, I should have no time for anything else except endeavoring to explain something that I did not understand myself.

Of course, I like to live comfortably and I hunted up a real modern establishment. It was, at first, I confess, too modern for my English comprehension, with its many electrical fixtures. So I generously typed that indispensable sovereign supreme in his independence, the janitor, to fully explain matters to me.

With lofty superiority he condescendingly volunteered to show me how to use a luminous radiator, his "far removed" attitude speaking his eloquent opinion of me.

"Ah! you never heard of an electric cooking and baking range, lady?" he asked incredulously, when we came to that handy outfit.

I expressed my entire ignorance apologetically.

"It's a great thing, mam," he began. "This is big enough to cook for more than five persons."

"Where did it come from?" I asked, for another idea had come to me, and I fancied I would be able to get more lucid information from a more willing source.

"The Minnet Electric Shop," he replied, as though it were a superfluous question.

"Where?" I asked.

"Minnet building, of course," he replied with disdain for my ignorance.

"I'll go there," I remarked, "thanks," and the janitor, with a hasty dip of his cap, disappeared down the street, wearing a most disgusted expression.

At the Minnet Electric shop, which is really the Electric Supply and Fixture Co., I found an exact replica of my pretty cooking outfit, and now it is no longer a mystery to me, which I am afraid to investigate. It is simple to operate and real handy.

It is very gratifying indeed to be able to cook without coal, gas or oil and still more gratifying to prepare a meal without smoke, soot or the disastrous flame which never fails to burn my rather inexperienced fingers.

Electricity has made possible ideal housekeeping. Both cooking and heating devices have been developed to accomplish each its particular purpose with the greatest facility. There is too, no waste heat, because each device is designed to generate heat where it is needed and to reduce or minimize useless radiation.

At the Minnet shop I found a sort of electrical department store, for the chief business of the firm is to install electrical fixtures in homes, especially in new houses. Then, they carry a complete line of electrical supplies for wiring purposes.

It is seldom one finds, especially in a city the size of Fort Wayne, an electrical contracting and supply house which is able to furnish electrical fixtures and appliances conforming in design to any art period desired. Beautiful lamps, candelabras, chandeliers and lighting effects can be had there which will harmonize with the decorative scheme of any home.

In their three display rooms will be found a perfectly enchanting line of illuminating fixtures, some of which would grace a palace. Their assortment of art domes for diningrooms is large, and contains the most beautiful selections imaginable.

It would be hard to find lovelier art table lamps than the Minnet shop has to offer, and there is, scarcely an electrical household appliance made that they cannot show you.

There is the Santo vacuum cleaner, which not only accomplishes the hardest tasks connected with house-cleaning, but is a sanitary method of cleaning carpets, rugs, draperies and upholstered furniture. It disinfects them by drawing from them all the germs and microbes which have been carried in by the feet or blown through the windows.

The Minnet Electrical shop pays special attention to the rental of these wonderful household helps. You may not be able to pay $125 for a Santo vacuum cleaner of your own but you can rent one for $2.00 a day. The firm has five of these devices which are used for rental purposes only. The cleaner is delivered at your house the evening before, so that the housewife may start as early as she pleases in the morning. There is no more work to it than running a carpet sweeper over the floor.

Electric fans in all sizes can be had there, as well as all kinds of electrical heating and cooking devices. There are handy hot plates and water heaters that can be employed in a thousand ways. Electric tea kettles are immense and with the coffee percolators one can prepare coffee in a remarkable short time and it will be fresh and delicious when served.

I have learned to use an electrical chafing dish and it is dandy. Every one should possess an electric flat iron. Mine is a six-pounder, and is a great time, labor and money saver. You can attach it anywhere where there is a light socket, even on the back porch if you like.

No woman should be without an electric curling iron. They are the most convenient thing in the world. So are hair driers; they solve the shampoo problem. One doesn't need to go to the hair dressers but can save time, money and trouble and be comfortable at home.

Grids and broilers are nice for preparing meats without standing over a hot fire, and with a toaster one may always have fresh toast. For it may be made on the dining table for tardy arrivals at the breakfast table.

There were a number of familiar searches on hand last night, and no incidents worthy of note. Really I am so very tired of the chase that when I think that I am still uncaptured I almost cry.

You let me get by you, and today I have got to do that cruel promenade. That I am still free is your fault, not mine. My disguises for two days now have been mere jokes. After seeing me Tuesday at the Temple you should have been able to pick me out.

Today must end the chase at all hazards. Please be on hand all you hard workers and capture Dolly, who is, oh, so very tired of the chase.

It is useless to chronicle the events of last night's gathering. You did not apprehend me, which really is the only important thing about it.

Every mail brings me some query relative to my dear Chalmers. Yesterday a correspondent requested to know where Chalmers cars are made. They are made by the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mich., who are represented here in Fort Wayne by the Randall Motor Co.

These cars are made by a firm of unquestioned high standing in the automobile industry. They are built in a factory which ranks among the best in the world. It occupies a site of 30 acres and represents an investment of approximately $3,000,000 in buildings and equipment.

With such a company and such a factory it seems logical that Chalmers cars should be good cars. They have won more victories in proportion to contests entered into than any other cars. Fourteen thousand owners also say a good word for them.

The special white waist sale is still on and while there will be no window display of these great values, tomorrow, the interior display is just as complete as it was all week. Where you can conveniently make your selections.

To see is to buy. You cannot resist when you get 12.00, 15.00, 18.00, 20.00, 25.00 and 30.00 satin, messaline, taffeta, foulard, challies, pongee, crepe de chine and chiffon dresses for 7.50

The most sensational sale ever announced to the fashionably inclined women of Fort Wayne and vicinity.

Is Now On, Involving Over 500 Rich and beautiful, Crisp, New Dresses that will fill every need—street, afternoon, theater, party, promenade, evening and general wear.

While the total purchase amounts to over five hundred dresses, yet the great assortment contains a big variety of styles and colors, such a great diversion of beautiful patterns and weaves of silk that there are not many of a kind and in many instances there are but one of a style, giving you a broad field for selection.

An opportunity of this kind does not come every day.

The unexpected often happens, it happened to us when we were informed by our Mr. Rosenthal of this immense deal—"I bought these Dresses at about one-fourth of the makers' cost, sell them at $7.50 no matter how good they look to you when they come. Put them on sale at once, and give the people the benefit of what I saved on the purchase," an extract from a letter following the telegram received from Mr. Rosenthal.

This great special purchase comes from the well known firm of Fisher and Swawite, Chicago, Ill., and represents the entire balance stock they had on hand of this season's make.

It is without a doubt the greatest individual purchase of high-class dresses to be offered at one price that was ever brought to Fort Wayne.

It is the maker who loses by this transaction, and you are getting the bargains.

The sale will continue until all are sold, but the earlier you come the better your selection, naturally. It does not take long to spread good news—be on hand tomorrow—you will find it fascinating to see how eagerly others are picking up the good things.

Remember there are both ladies' and misses' sizes.

RESCUED FROM MAUMEE RIVER.

Earl McKinzie Narrowly Escapes Drowning on Ninth Birthday.

Earl McKinzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKinzie, celebrated his ninth birthday Thursday, and the anniversary came near having a gruesome ending, when young McKinzie fell overboard from a boat, which, with some companions, he had taken out into the Maumee river at the foot of Hanna street. The lad was rescued from the water in an unconscious condition by Edward Keller, day engineer at the Moran Ice plant, and some section men on the Nickel Plate railroad. He was removed to the home of Mrs. Feldhiser, at 635 East Wayne street, and Dr. Morse Harrod was called. It was only with the greatest effort that Mr. Kiefer and Mrs. Feldhiser succeeded in resuscitating the boy. The accident occurred about 5 o'clock in the afternoon when young McKinzie and some other boys secured an old boat and pushed out into the river. They were trying to keep the craft afloat when it accidentally dipped on one side, throwing the McKinzie boy into the river. The boy's father is employed at the Kerr Murray works.

ROBERTSON TO PITCH FOR CASEY'S SQUAD

CRIPPLES GIVE TERRE HAUTE A BATTLE FOR THE SECOND ROUND

Blount's Crippled Ankle Responsible for Two Runs and Keener Loses Chance to Score by Cutting One of the Bases.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 25.—A victory for Terre Haute in the second round of the four-day stand of the Fort Wayne team on the Cool Miller battlefield resulted rather from the crippled condition of the Casey cohorts than from the better play of the home guard and although Edward J. Wheeler, desperate at the losses of the early season, sent his strengthened lineup into the conflict he had nothing to boast of when he hunk up 4-7-0-5 with

"Cy" Young and Curly Blount are barely able to get around without crutches and in spite of the fact that Blount is putting in a pretty good game at first the infield plays with less confidence than when McLafferty is on his regular job.

Manager James changed his mind about Werder and picked Harry Corns for mound duty in the second game, and his selection was not good, as the faithful pitcher had a bad day and Harnden had to render some aid before the engagement was finished.

Puttmann, an American association outcast, started for the Tots, but in the fifth inning the visitors gave him such a warm tussle that he was dragged from the mound in favor of Billard who succeeded in halting the lightning Billingtons.

Fort Wayne hit for many bases, but luck broke for the home side at every turn of the game and this was brought out in a marked way in the first inning when Blount's bad leg handicapped him in going after Johnny Barkwell's single and it got by him, allowing one man to score, and the runner to take third. One of the lucky runs was made in this inning as Blount could, when he is right, have been Barkwell at first and the man ahead of him a third. Just after the sun went over Eddie Wheeler popped out for the third man of the inning.

Hartford, who got into the first game of the series, who failed to show with the stick, made two hits to the game yesterday, but played only a fair game in the field, missing one of the only two chances he had. The gate receipts were not more than enough to pay the guarantee of $50. Callahan opened the game with a single and Bobby Grogan moved him up with a punt. Bates hit and Callahan walked, and with three on and one down Meyers squeezed the first run over. When Barkwell's lousier got away from Blount, Bates scored and Casey passed the way to the first Fort Wayne score in the fourth when he hit for three bags with two on and scored when Harnden's throw wild to first on Justice's roller in front of the plate.

"The fifth was Harry Corns' bad inning. He passed three men and allowed one slapper that netted two runs and he was retired by the mucker in the sixth inning, but not until after he had started a rally that netted a couple of runs. He opened the fifth with a single and moved up when Puttmann hit Blount with a pitched ball. Vandagriff was sent to the scrap heap, but the men advanced on the base and both romped over on Keener's single.

Corns was upset in the sixth. He hit Hartford to start with and on a hit-and-run play, Werder delivered a single and sent the runner ahead of him to third. Billard was passed, filling the bases and Callahan's double to right sent two men in. Billard was halted at third but Corns on a passed ball.

Keener scored the last Fort Wayne run in the seventh when he hit for three bases and scored on Young's out.

BURKE LOOKS FOR A CROWD.

Says That Losing Team Needs Boosting

In a letter to friends here Jimmy Burke says he is very thankful to his Fort Wayne friends for arranging an excursion to see his team play Sunday afternoon at the Lake Erie grounds. He is more because a losing team needs boosting more than a winner.

He has written Councilman Harry Plinnaker, who is arranging the excursion, that he will give Robertson a chance to pitch and will use him if his arm is in shape. Mr. Plinnaker succeeded in arranging for two trains over the Lake Erie line, the first of which will leave at 6:15 and make all the stops, and the next at 7:15, which will be run straight through.

LIKES CORK CENTER BALL

South Bend, Ind., May 25.—That the cork center ball adds to the interest of the game in the minor leagues is the opinion of Dr. P. F. Carson, president of the Central league. Asked what he thought of the cork center ball he said it is now manufactured and used.

"I believe the cork center ball to be a good thing for minor league baseball, although I think the present make is just a little too lively. Fans like to see games with four or five runs, but under the conditions existing now there are too many bad hits and too many home runs. Pitches who have heretofore depended on the men back of them almost entirely are finding their duties are becoming much more arduous than usual, because of this increased liveliness of the ball.

The cork center ball, which has been forced to weather this season has caused much comment, and now Gerry Hermann, chairman of the national commission, has sent circulars around to the directors of the two majors asking their opinion on the new cork center ball.

SAVED A SHUTOUT

FINISHED TOMMY MURPHY IN FIRST ROUND

"KNOCKOUT BROWN"

New York, May 25.—Valentine "Knockout" Brown, Gotham's clever young light weight, sprang a surprise last night in boxing circles when he knocked out "Harlem Tommy" Murphy in the first round of a scheduled ten-round athletic event before the Madison Square Athletic club. The battle did not last long enough to give the fans chance to settle down in the seats, a crushing right cross to the jaw sending Murphy down for the count and ending the bout.

The result came unexpectedly. Murphy for several years a claimant to recognition for the lightweight championship, though there were plenty of Brown's backers scattered through the crowd.

The battle did not last long enough to give the fans chance to settle down in the seats, a crushing right cross to the jaw sending Murphy down for the count and ending the bout.

Murphy managed to tap his opponent lightly on the body and point of the chin, but apparently never bothered Brown. After the bout had gone a bit over a minute Brown suddenly opened on the offensive. He rushed into Murphy's defense and broke it down completely with blow after blow, which left Tommy bewildered. Murphy backed into the ropes and sidestepped repeatedly and his speed almost saved him.

The finish came when Murphy attempted to turn the tide by going on to the offensive. On the shift Brown saw a beautiful opening and, following a hard drive to the stomach, he dazed Murphy completely with a smash to the jaw, and "Harlem Tommy" dropped to his knees for the count. He attempted to rise, but he couldn't, and his seconds lifted him back to his corner.

South Bend club during the series at home has begun to pound the ball, and has averaged one hit a game on the road.

Ed Moffitt, recently sold by South Bend to Madison, will work at the home during the week and pitch on Sundays for the Laporte Independent team. He has refused to go to Madison.

Manager Kelly of the St. Paul baseball club, announces that he has traded Harry Steinfield, the former Chicago National league left basemen, to the Boston Red Sox for Outfielder Josh Clarke and Infielder Butler.

Josh Devore, the midwest outfielder of the New York Giants, by his speedy base running this year, has shown himself to be one of the fastest men in the game today. Johnny McGraw, the other day, said that he would bet his all on Devore today he is one of the most popular boxers that has ever put on a bout here.

He has always fought in the east and in England and was practically unknown here. He gave Coulton a stiff argument in New York about a year ago and after Harry Forbes had backed down "Pop" Coulton recommended him to the promoters.

Following an amusing battle royal in which five local "smokes" started and in which three were eliminated after a few more rounds of milling, but the statistics stood in the way of a continuance of hostilities. Daly received an ovation in his corner after the fight and today he is one of the most popular boxers that has ever put on a bout here.

Frank Smith has always wanted to play ball in the National league so that he could appear in his home city of Pittsburgh occasionally.

Smith's father has had a dicker installed in his office at Milwaukee so that he can watch for the long hits that his son is making for the Phillies.

Johnny McKelley is in straits now that he does not know one day in advance what his lineup will be.

Eddie Wheeler's wife has a new fox terrier that is doing the mauling at Terre Haute. She has had it at the park in both of the Fort Wayne games.

Ed Carson, president of the South Bend team, has won only one of the ten games he has pitched this season. The duties are weighing heavily on him.

Dayton is basing its hope on a little crowd of the season is expected when Fort Wayne plays there Sunday and Devotion day.

While the Central league may stand for a pitcher who will not work on Sunday, it can't afford outfielders of that caliber, and Noggin was sent by South Bend to Cincinnati.

R. B. Kelly, who did not hit for the Max Carey got a three base hit in the game between Brooklyn and Pittsburgh. Volly Stark got out in the sixth game. Jennings took Ness out in the eighth.

Willie Johnson started on his strike-out record yesterday when he fanned nine of the Detroit batters in the eighth.

Alexander, the great, pitched Philadelphia back into first place in the National league when he beat the Cardinals. Harry Welchone got a hit, a run and a sacrifice in the club.

Counlin in his fight against the Cleveland club and won the day.

McCabe held New York to five hits and permitted the Queens to take the lead. Drucker, Ames and Crandall were used by McGraw in his efforts to stop the Reds.

DALY MAKING MATCH

LUCK WITH DAYTON

Johnny Coulton, according to Manager "Pop" Coulton, will retire from the ring for the summer following a live encounter at the business rink last night in which Johnny Daly gave the champion a pretty stiff argument.

Daly, who is coming two offers—one to meet Monte Attles at Springfield, O., and the other to take on Frankie Burns at Waterbury, Conn. He will decide today and will probably leave Fort Wayne some time tomorrow.

Both men were in excellent condition this morning following their grueling grind of last night and the only mark that either bore was a cut over Coulton's right eye, which he says was inflicted by Daly's head in one of the mixups.

There was only $65 in the house to see the most expensive and one of the best battles ever staged in Fort Wayne and the promoters stand to lose $400 to $500 on the bout. There is no doubt that the extreme heat cut down the attendance, but it was a big disappointment to Perry Stahl and Matchmaker William Mueller, who worked hard to get a high-class champion's style and second, another hurling contest in the game at Zanesville, and one slip-up in the seventh when Meyers passed Blusen and Jones cut a drive down first base line won the game for the Pottery.

Dayton's luck was right with it in the game at Evansville and although Ed Asher allowed eleven hits to slip for once, it had bound in the outfield let the ball get away from Snyder and Kirkpatrick got a home run with three men on out of what should have been an ordinary single. The scores:

Grand Rapids . . . 0 0 1 3 0 0 0—5 6 3
Wheeling . . . 0 0 1 2 0 0 1—12 4
Evansville . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—11 1
Batteries—Meyers and Holmes; Jones and O'Brien.

Zanesville . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—11 1
Batteries—Sterzer and Tleman; Asher and Konnick.

Dayton . . . 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—5 6 2
Batteries—Sterzer and Tleman; Asher and Konnick.

Both boys looked fresh at the end of the tenth and the crowd was hungry for a few more rounds of milling, but the statistics stood in the way of a continuance of hostilities. Daly received an ovation in his corner after the fight and today he is one of the most popular boxers that has ever put on a bout here.

THREE YEAR OLD TOT IN PERIL

Wandered on Pennsylvania
Tracks in Front of Train.

FIREMAN GARMAN JUMPED TO RESCUE

Reaching Child Just as the Father Lifted Her Off Track.

In a heroic effort to save the life of a little flaxen-haired tot, W. O. Garman, a Pennsylvania fireman, sustained injuries at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening which have temporarily disabled him, though they are not serious.

Fireman Garman was with Engineer Jacob Flaugh on a high-class freight and just west of the Sandusky river bridge, at Bucyrus, he was horrified to see a little girl standing in the middle of the tracks a short distance from the train. Throwing down his scoop, the fireman jumped from the cab, fell down, scrambled to his feet and rushed forward just as the little one was snatched from the tracks by her father, who came up on the opposite side. Had the father failed, Mr. Garman would have rescued the child, for he was there in time. Engineer Flaugh saw the little one also and was making great efforts to stop the train. Had he failed to realize the situation, the little girl would have been killed, for the train would have been moving much more rapidly than it was and would have beaten the father and the fireman to her. Engineer Flaugh and Fireman Garman were impressed with the beauty of the little one, each declaring that she was the prettiest little girl they ever saw.

When Fireman Garman fell after jumping from the cab, he sprained his knee and bruised one of his hips, but so excited was he by the incident that he failed to notice his condition and was able to work until he reached the terminal. The next morning, however, he was barely able to stand and today uses a cane in getting about. The engine crew failed to learn the name of the little tot, whose parents reside in the vicinity. She had strayed away from home and her absence was not discovered until the father saw her on the tracks and the freight train moving down towards her.

CHANGES AT WABASH SHOPS.

June 15, S. E. Kellor will retire from the position of account clerk in the motive power department of the Wabash, with headquarters in this city, and he will be succeeded by Ed. Keach, who is now familiarizing himself with the duties. Mr. Keach was chief clerk to Division Storekeeper H. W. Hurst for some months, being called from Delray, where he was shop foreman's clerk for several years. He has been succeeded as chief clerk to Mr. Hurst by Joseph D. Gage, promoted from another position. This change became effective this morning. Mr. Gage has been with the Wabash for eight or ten years, commencing as a clerk and stenographer in the ticket office. Mr. Kellor has been account clerk since February, 1910, and has been in the employ of the company six years. Before coming to Fort Wayne he held a clerical position in the company's offices at St. Thomas, Ont. He has accepted a better position with the Canadian Northern road and will assume the duties July 15. He will take a month's lay off for rest and visit relatives at St. Thomas.

TO EXAMINE FIREMEN.

Next Monday the Pennsylvania road foreman of engines and assistants will inaugurate the annual examination of firemen, which will be more thorough than any yet held, but it is believed that all will successfully pass through the ordeal. At 9 o'clock of each day the men will be examined in mechanical matters and general information and in the afternoons they will display their knowledge of air brakes and their appurtenances. The firemen who have been in service two or more years will be required to pass a written examination, in addition to oral, but those in the service a less time will have only an oral examination. These examinations, which will be made at the road foreman of engines' office at the round house, will continue until all firemen have been examined and will probably extend over a period of ten days.

SPECIAL FOR MINISTERS.

The western delegation to the Baptist alliance, which will begin in Philadelphia Tuesday, June 13, will make the trip to that city on a magnificently appointed special train over the Pennsylvania, which will run as the second section of the eighteen-hour flyer, No. 28, passing through Fort Wayne at 6 o'clock in the evening. Rev. John F. Vichert, of the First Baptist church of this city, will join the delegation here and go to Philadelphia on the special. The train will be made up with four sleepers, an observation car, a diner and a baggage car and will be pulled by one of the best locomotives on the division.

tory, affected by elevation work to make it a continuous system from Chicago to New York. B. Chapman, one of the last of the Signal company's employees to leave the city, went to Toledo last night to visit his parents, and the Signal people have no representative here now.

SIX MEN TO BE A CREW.

Railroad employees in Pennsylvania were successful in the long fight they waged for a six men crew on all trains over thirty cars on railroads in that state. The railroads opposed the bill for awhile, but realizing the strength of the party favoring it, they withdrew and released the senators, who had promised assistance, and the bill was given an unanimous vote of the senate. It provides that all trains of thirty cars or more must have a crew of six men.

EXPENSES TO BE PAID.

In addition to increasing the annual salaries of the officials from $500 to $1,000, the international convention of the B. R. T., now in session at Harrisburg, voted to allow the officers, while away from headquarters' city, a per diem of $4 per day for expenses. The convention also ordered a referendum vote to be taken on a proposition to increase the per diem pay of the delegates to bi-annual conventions from $5 to $7.

INSPECTION IS FINISHED.

Boilermaker W. H. G. Heine and Machinist Frank Hebert, of the Pennsylvania, completed the inspection of the steam plants at various places on the Western division of the Pennsylvania Wednesday night and Mr. Hebert has resumed his duties in the shops. Mr. Heine is doing some work for the company at Monroeville, where he went yesterday.

ANKLE BADLY HURT.

Valentine Waggoner, employed at the Pennsylvania round house, had his left foot caught between the turntable and one of the rails leading to it at 1:30 o'clock this morning and the ankle was badly squeezed and sprained, though it is believed none of the bones were broken. The injured man was taken to his home, where he is being attended by the company's surgeon.

BURNED BY SHORT CIRCUIT.

A "short circuit" accident at the testing rooms in the Fort Wayne Electric works at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon put Earl Waterman out of commission for a few days. The thumb and three fingers of each of his hands were burned by the current. Dr. Schultz attended him.

REINSTATED TEN LABORERS.

Ten laborers were given employment at the Pennsylvania car shops this morning. These men were among those suspended two months ago and among the first to be reinstated.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

John Lemper, a clerk in the Pennsylvania ticket receiver's office, is suffering from a severe attack of the mumps.

Wabash Yard Conductor John Malone, who is an Elk, has taken a lay off to help entertain the many visiting brethren.

Fireman R. W. Fish, of the Pennsylvania, is off duty as the result of injuries, which are not considered of a serious character.

Supt. W. M. Wardrop, of the Pennsylvania, is making a trip over subdivision D, between this city and Chicago, this afternoon.

Master Mechanic G. W. Smith and Chief Clerk P. A. Thompson, of the Wabash, are in Detroit today on business for the company.

James Laughlin, of the Pennsylvania planing mills, cut one of his fingers badly yesterday and will be unable to work for a few days.

The Carpenters and Joiners' union at the meeting last night initiated a class of applicants and took action on a number of applications.

E. C. Conick, a student, of Chicago, has returned to that city after a visit with his brother, John R. Conick, assistant foreman at the Pennsylvania round house.

Daniel Hickey, for a number of years a conductor on the Lake Shore road, running in and out of Fort Wayne, died at his home in Jackson, Mich., Wednesday night.

Floyd DeHaven, of the motive power department of the Pennsylvania, for some time stationed at Allegheny, was in the city yesterday combining a social visit with comrades and business for the company.

Eng. Freeman E. W. Zimmerman, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, with his wife and children, have gone to Mansfield, Ohio, to spend a few days with her parents.

John Cavalier, a bookkeeper at the Wayne Knitting mills, is quite sick at his home, 1214 Lafayette street. The illness is the more to be regretted at this time because Mr. Cavalier is an enthusiastic member of the Elks.

Harry E. Brighty, a former Wabash conductor was recently killed in the yards of the Clover Leaf railway at Frankfort, Ind., by being caught between two colliding switch engines while he was standing on the pilot steps.

President J. M. Landenberg, of the Indiana Road Machine company, has instituted suit against Milwaukee township, Wis., to recover $400 due for machinery purchased by the township trustees two years ago. The defendant refuses to settle because of alleged violation of the Wisconsin corporation laws.

A New York Central mail train traveled three miles in one minute and fifty-one seconds recently, establishing a new fast run record for the world. The first mile was covered in thirty-eight seconds, the second in thirty-seven and the third in thirty-six, and the train consisted of seven mail cars and two Pullmans.

The Ohio State Federation of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks will hold its fifth convention in the Denison house in Cincinnati next Sunday. One of the objects hoped to be attained by the federation is to make candidates for state or national legislative offices announce their positions on questions concerning the railroads and their employees.

BANISH THOSE GRAY HAIRS!

Kill the Dandruff Germs—Stop Hair Falling

Thousands of mothers are looking younger.—Their gray hairs are gone. The natural color has come back, and with it a new growth of soft, glossy, luxuriant hair. Why should you look old before your time, when you can look years younger by using

WYETH'S
SAGE AND SULPHUR
HAIR REMEDY

Dandruff Cured

Three applications removed all the dandruff and left my scalp clean, white and smooth.
Wm. Crook, Rochester, N. Y.

Restores Gray Hair to Natural Color

"If other 'so-called' Restorers have failed, don't give up hope, but give WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY a trial. You run no risk. If it is not exactly as represented, your money will be refunded."

PROFIT BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Gray Hair Restored

My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

MISS E. A. ROSS,
Sharon, Mercer Co., Pa.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

PLACE IS CHARMING

The Fort Wayne Country club will formally open its beautiful club house and grounds southwest of the city on Tuesday next, and an elaborate program of entertainment has been provided for the membership. It is expected that a very large proportion of the 456 active and associate members will be present to enjoy the opening of the charming place.

Everything is now in readiness for the season. The club house can be reached by either the Huntington or the Covington roads in conveyances or by cars on the Huntington division of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company. All regular cars will stop at the club station, and cars will run hourly, beginning at 6 a. m. Beginning at noon on Tuesday half-hourly car service will be given, and the last incoming car will leave the grounds at midnight.

A special committee has charge of decoration and the club house will present a beautiful appearance. The tennis courts and golf links will be open and ready for general play during the morning hours.

Two special committees of ladies have been appointed to take charge for the day and provide refreshments and look after the entertainment of members during the afternoon and evening.

During the afternoon there will be a musical entertainment under the direction of Howard Van Sweringen, and Miss Florence Lang will sing.

Refreshments will be served from 3 to 5, and cards and other entertainment in the house and on the porch will be supplied for members. The tennis courts will be ready for use and members are invited to take advantage of the opportunity to play.

Flag Tournament in Golf.

There will be a golf contest known as a flag tournament to be played under the following rules:

It will be bogey plus player's handicap. The player's allotment of strokes plus 84 (which is bogey) will be his total play. If the handicap of a player is 10 his total strokes will be 94 or 84 plus 10. If his total complement of strokes takes him past the 18th hole, he continues from the first tee to the conclusion of his final stroke, where he plants his flag. The flag is a pennant bearing the monogram of the club and the player's number, record of which will be taken at the start of the tournament. Prizes will be awarded to players finishing in 1st, 5th and 10th places. The handicap list will be published and also be posted on the bulletin board at the club house a day or two before the event.

From 5:30 to 8 p. m. dinners will be served to those desiring to remain for the evening entertainment. Dancing will be the principal entertainment for the evening, with music by Reliance. Refreshments will be served by the ladies' committee during intermissions.

PRESENT TREND IN PIANO SELLING

Cleaner Methods Promulgated by the National Association of Piano
Dealers.

The One Price System Now the Rule Among Leading Merchants.

The Duty of the Buyer Who Expects Fair Treatment from the Seller.

"Why does not the one-price system prevail in the piano trade?" was asked recently of Lewis H. Clement, President of the National Association of Piano Dealers. "As such a method would naturally appeal to thoughtful buyers, why is it not practiced by piano dealers?"

"There are several reasons," answered Mr. Clement. "Some date back to the early days of piano selling—others are due to the peculiarities of the piano trade—others again to the lack of fairness on the part of buyers as well as of dealers."

Mr. Currier, of the Whitney & Currier Co., Toledo, who began selling pianos way back in war times, called attention at a recent meeting of our Association that all prices were then quoted on a basis of payment in greenbacks, worth only about one-third as much as gold, so a $1,200 piano even then really brought about $400 in gold. When gold and greenbacks were finally placed on a parity the public were so accustomed to seeing pianos priced at $1,000 to $1,200 that they could not believe a good piano could be sold for $400. It took several years before manufacturers had the courage to omit printed prices from their catalogues, and, in the meantime, buyers came to expect a liberal discount from so-called list prices. It has taken years to grow away from this custom. Some dealers and manufacturers still take advantage of the old custom and mark their pianos at more than their real value to enable them to offer special inducements, give credit coupons or certificates for solving simple puzzles, or advertise alluring discounts to attract buyers. In all lines of trade certain dealers secure trade by sharp practices rather than through the merit of their goods. It is not surprising that this is true of some piano dealers.

"But there is another reason for the lack of uniform prices. For this the customer is frequently to blame. The custom of taking old instruments in part payment for new ones prevails in the piano business. This makes difficult the establishment of a one-price system. The dealer who asks a fair price for new instruments must obtain old pianos offered in exchange at an equally fair valuation; otherwise, the price of the new piano must be raised sufficiently to meet the inflated idea of value which the buyer may place on the old instrument. A customer will frequently demand for an old piano more than he knows it could be sold for in cash—yet he expects the dealer to place a just price on the new piano. Such customers forget that you cannot eat your cake and have it, too. When buyers will be fair in such matters they will find dealers less likely to have two prices, a trading price and a cash price."

"The third reason lies in the fact that those very buyers who complain because dealers do not sell pianos at fixed prices will buy a piano of some shrewd advertiser under conditions which a moment's consideration would show must be fictitious, if not fraudulent. When reputable dealers, who pride themselves on their reliability, see other dealers secure a large number of sales by giving coupons or credit certificates for solving some simple, foolish puzzle, the conscientious dealer, however much he may desire to be fair, is often sorely tempted to engage in some of these questionable methods himself."

"It is reported that one manufacturer boasts of having made upwards of four million dollars in the last half-dozen years by giving away coupons, claiming to be value dai seventy-five to one hundred and fifty dollars each—to those who solved his simple puzzles and bought his pianos at his prices. "Therefore, the slowness of piano dealers to adopt the one-price system is not wholly the fault of the dealers. The fault is chargeable, in part, to unreasonable and unreasoning buyers, who, by their lack of fairness and appreciation for honest methods, make it hard for the dealer to be fair."

"This is plain talk, but every honest dealer knows it to be the facts." "I have always been in favor of the one-price system," said Mr. Clement, "and patronize merchants who do business under this system. I believe one will obtain, year in and year out, better value for one's money from such stores than by attending impossible discount sales, auction sales or purchasing from stores which forever advertise special inducements."

"It is interesting to know," continued Mr. Clement, "that Mr. W. H. Currier was among the very first to advocate this plan. A few days ago I came across a letter written to me by Mr. Currier nine years ago. One paragraph is as follows:

"It will not be long, I hope, ere many of the questionable practices by dealers and their agents will entirely cease, but this can only be accomplished by meeting and discussing these matters and securing a unity of action on the part of dealers in their attitude toward buyers. I hope we may soon have all our prices at the actual selling price, and ask no more and take no less. We may not be able to arrive at it at once, but I believe it will establish confidence when we mean exactly what we say in regard to the price of our goods. We must first believe in the righteousness of the method, and then work it out. If other dealers would join in this same method, it would be comparatively easy and both the buyers and dealers would be benefited."

"These words show how Mr. Currier saw, nearly ten years ago, the tendency of reliable dealers to mark their pianos at a price which represented their real worth, and then stand by that price because it was right."

"Every piano in our store," said Mr. Clement, "is marked in plain figures at the actual selling price—no more and no less. Nor are we alone in this, for in nearly all large cities one or more dealers—usually the oldest and most reliable—adhere to this method."

The National Association of Piano Dealers, of which Mr. Clement is President, has for several years advocated the adoption of the one-price system.

The great majority of its members have also placed themselves on record against all schemes in which certificates, coupons and prizes are given for solving simple puzzles. Not only has the Association exerted its influence in the betterment of trade conditions, but it has likewise, through its press bureau, endeavored to acquaint piano owners and buyers with certain facts regarding these instruments in order that pianos may receive better care, be kept in better tune, and thus prove more satisfactory to their owners and better serve their purpose in making musicians of those who use them.

WHISKERS WIN AGAIN.

Unlike the Brooklyn caddyman who complained that people hurled sticks and stones and overripe fruit and other profligate epithets at him because of his whiskers, Michael Gremming did not write to the mayor asking for police protection. If he had he might have been saved a beating with the bald end of a broom, says the New York American.

And unlike Speaker Champ Clark, who referred the whiskers debate to the ways and means committee, Mrs. Gremming settled the controversy by having her husband hauled before Magistrate Murphy, in the west side court.

"I wanted to attend my aunt's wake," Gremming said, as he stroked a luxuriant growth of spruce that reached almost to his waist. "The boys at the shop had been making fun of my whiskers. They offered to take up a collection of fifteen cents and defray the expense of having them cut. I know I didn't look presentable and I do not look presentable now, as your honor will admit. So I asked my wife to let me have fifteen cents to have the whiskers trimmed and make a decent appearance. Your honor, a wake is a wake, and a man should try to look his best. Well, sir, my wife said it was an unnecessary waste of money, and one word led to another, and finally she landed on me with the broom."

"Your honor," broke in Mrs. Gremming, "just one word. I am not a talkative or quarrelsome woman—indeed, a woman of few words. But my man is not telling the whole truth. I am an economical housewife. First, there is the money saved from the barber, and added to that the saving from laundry and neckties, for a man who wears a long beard can make a balled shirt last a week, and he need wear no necktie at all, for who knows the difference with the space covered by the beard? So, when my man took the notion to have his beard trimmed I objected."

"Your honor, my husband had been drinking, else he would never have thought of having his beard trimmed. It's only when he's intoxicated that he thinks he wants to be a dude. It was he that took the broom handle and began to beat me. I took it away from him and hung it on his head, and that's the true story."

$100.00 Reward

FOR THE CAPTURE OF THE MYSTERIOUS

"Dolly Dimples"

RULES AND CONDITIONS

The Fort Wayne Sentinel will pay $100.00 in GOLD to any person apprehending the Mysterious Dolly Dimples who complies with the rules and conditions governing this unique novelty and who repeats the following salutation to the mysterious Dolly Dimples: "PARDON ME, YOU ARE THE MYSTERIOUS MISS DOLLY DIMPLES OF THE SENTINEL."

If the above salutation is repeated word for word to the mysterious young lady she will at once admit her identity, take you to the office of The Sentinel where the above reward will be paid. When you arrive at The Sentinel office you will be required to make an affidavit that you are now and have been a resident in the state of Indiana within a radius of twenty-five miles of Fort Wayne for the past six months. The reward will not be paid to any outsider, but only to a bona-fide resident of the state of Indiana. This rule effectually prohibits any collusion and makes this merry chase fair and above board.

Boys under eighteen years of age are also prohibited from securing the reward and will not be recognized by Dolly Dimples.

This same rule applies to any person directly or indirectly connected with The Fort Wayne Sentinel, or any member of his or her family.

The salutation which must be repeated to the young lady will be changed from day to day until she is finally captured. Therefore our advice to all persons interested in trying to win the $100.00 in Gold is to watch the columns of The Sentinel every day and memorize the magic words until you are perfect.

Dolly Dimples is subject to capture from 12 o'clock noon to 12 o'clock midnight each day. The salutation published in the current day's issue of The Sentinel is good up to midnight, and from 12 o'clock noon next day until the first issue of the paper of that day.

Here is a chance for some person to display cleverness and at the same time secure a real nice nest egg.

Miss Dolly Dimples will not recognize anyone who in any way whatsoever stops her longer than a reasonable length of time in order to repeat the salutation correctly. It must be distinctly understood that Miss Dolly Dimples will immediately admit her identity if correctly saluted. There will be no need of holding her at any time. Only one reward will be paid, and in case more than one person claims priority of capture, the decision of Miss Dolly Dimples shall be final as to which one of the claimants first properly addressed her and complied with the rules and conditions.

READ THE ABOVE CONDITIONS CAREFULLY

BIRDMEN TO COME FOR MEET SUNDAY

Everything in Readiness for Three Days' Program
Here.

AT THE DRIVING PARK

In speaking of the aviation meet here Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, C. C. Witmer, the youngest and most daring of the Curtiss flyers, who arrived in the city in advance of his team mates, paid a high tribute to Charles F. Willard and expressed his delight that the veteran aviator has been assigned to this exhibition.

"I was surprised yesterday when I read that Willard was coming here," he said, "and I can see plainly that Mr. Curtiss is anxious to make the meet a success and is therefore sending his best man."

"Willard, I understand, has a new Curtiss racer of the same type of my own, and, knowing him of old, I am rather dubious about going against him in a race for I stand a chance of losing what reputation as a speeder I acquired at the Dallas meet last week. Willard is coming, I presume, to carry the people who have been promised a ride in the biplanes and I think his selection for that day is a wise one. Were I a novice in flying there is no driver with whom I would rather ride or trust with my life than Willard. With someone at his side he is as careful and cautious as he is fearless and reckless when in his machine alone and engaged in some contest."

"I have never been associated with Robinson or Middleton on an aviation field, but from the press and other flyers I have learned that both have an assured future in the game. Robinson has been the sensation of the extreme west since he joined Mr. Curtiss early last winter, while Middleton's worth is shown by the fact that, after only three months' experience, he was chosen as chief instructor at the Curtiss school of aviation at Washington, D. C. Both are daring aviators and have splendid racing machines and our race is bound to be close and exciting."

Witmer is eager for the meeting to start and is hoping for fair weather so that he may carry out his intention to attempt to break the altitude record, which he was prevented from doing with his new biplane at Dallas because of unfavorable weather. Through a change in Curtiss' plans the other three birdmen will not reach here until tonight or tomorrow morning.

THE DEATHS.

SCHWARTZ.

Frederick Schwartz, sr., aged 63 years, 2 months and 3 days, died at 6 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 226 West Butler street. Death was due to complications. The deceased was a pioneer resident of this city, having made his home here for sixty years, coming to this country with his parents from Germany, where he was born. He was a collar maker by trade, but had been retired for a number of years. He worked at his trade in this city for Amle Racine, and following the death of that employer worked for Fred Racine. He was known as one of the best at his trade in the city. He was at one time a member of the Sixth ward and a member of the police force. He is survived by a widow and eight children, Henry, George, Fred, Jr., Frank and Flora Schwartz and Mrs. Emily Bell, all of this city; Mrs. Fred Nagle, of Chicago, and Mrs. J. A. Selbold, Vancouver, B. C. One brother and three sisters, August Schwartz, Mrs. Isaac Baker, Mrs. Louise Slagle and Mrs. Henry Lapp, of this city, and eleven grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the residence, Rev. Zartman officiating. Interment at Lindenwood cemetery.

DONNELLY.

Abrose Donnelly, aged 78 years, a former resident of Fort Wayne, died Thursday morning at his home in Roanoke. Death was due to senility.

The deceased was born in Ireland Aug. 15, 1832, and came to this country at an early age, settling in Fort Wayne, which was his home until eighteen years ago, when he moved to Roanoke. He is survived by a widow and nine children, William Donnelly, of San Antonio, Texas; Joan B. and James Donnelly, of Minneapolis; Edward Donnelly and Mrs. Gertrude Bender, of Pasco, Wash.; Mrs. Anna Tibbald, of Cedar, Ind.; Mrs. Jennie Wright, of Roanoke, and Mrs. Ella Barr, of this city.

The remains were brought to this city for funeral services and interment, arriving here at 4 o'clock this afternoon and taken to the home of the daughter, Mrs. Barr, where the funeral will be held Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock, thence to St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

WESTERMANN.

William Westermann, aged 72 years, died at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of his son, Charles Westermann, of 1229 Ohio street. Death was due to asthma, from which he suffered for several years.

The deceased was born in Kreis Muenchen, Germany, and came to the United States in 1881, coming directly to Fort Wayne, which has been his home since that time. Previous to coming here he was married to Miss Wilhelmine Muller, in Germany, and she joined her husband in Fort Wayne a year after his arrival. He was a carpenter by trade, but for the past seventeen years has been retired. He was a devout member of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Surviving are one daughter and four sons, the wife having preceded him in death many years ago. The children are: Mrs. Fred Menze, William H. Herman, Charles and Fred Westermann, all of this city.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, thence to St. Paul's Lutheran church at 2:30 o'clock. Interment at Concordia cemetery.

Constipated all His Life Now Cured—Trial Free

One of the most harassing of troubles, though fortunately not fatal, is constipation, and millions of people suffer with it from infancy to old age. Its cause may be traced to any one of a dozen different circumstances of diet, environment and even birth.

Millions are practically born with constipation. Had they used intelligent methods at the beginning perhaps they would have found relief, but they had the usual misfortune of bad advice. They tried dieting, stewed fruits, then laxative waters, then pills and various other cathartics, and so in the end made matters worse. But there is still hope, even for the seemingly hopeless.

Have you ever tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin? It has been on the market for many years and is as staple in the households of those who know its value as salt and sugar. It is a liquid laxative- tonic that you can buy of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size. But if you prefer to learn its value personally before buying, then send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample.

It is without doubt the best laxative for constipation that you can find, and in every way the best remedy for that and headaches due to constipation, indigestion or dyspepsia, heartburn, drowsiness after eating gas on the stomach, biliousness and similar troubles. It is a mild, gentle remedy free from gripping and bad taste. Children take it readily. It is a standby in the homes of Mr. George W. Zimmerman, of 1617 N. 6th St., Harrisburg, Pa.; Robert Atkinson, Sr., of Cuba, Ill., and thousands of others.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, M.D., Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Mrs. Bowser Peeped and Saw Samuel in the Act—The Cause Removed—A Change at Breakfast this Morning After.

By M. QUAD.
[Copyright, 1911, by Associated Literary Press.]

MRS. BOWSER had come home in a cheerful state of mind, and nothing unusual had been noticed in his actions until an hour after dinner. Then he began to hitch around in a nervous way and finally said:

"Seems to me it's going to rain to-night."

"The stars were out half an hour ago," replied Mrs. Bowser.

"I think I'll go out and see." He put on his hat and passed out and was gone ten minutes and returned to say:

"Yes, the stars are out, but I was sure it was going to rain."

He picked up the paper and read for a quarter of an hour. Then he began to hitch again.

"Are you sitting on a tack?" asked Mrs. Bowser, who had an eye on him.

"No, of course not. Do you take me for a fool?"

"But you seem nervous."

"Well, I am. I believe we are going to have a thunderstorm. You know I CAUGHT STAR GAZING. always have these nervous fits on when there's thunder in the air."

"I never heard of it before."

"Oh, you didn't! Well, there's a good many things you never heard of before. If there's a thunderstorm coming up I want to know it."

He went down the hall and outdoors; again, and it was ten minutes before he returned.

"I don't hear any thunder," observed Mrs. Bowser.

"There isn't any," he replied, "but the weather has a peculiar influence on me this evening."

The house settled down to peace and harmony again, but not for long. Of a sudden Mr. Bowser began to giggle like a schoolgirl and then cried out:

"By George, that's funny! Funniest thing I've read in ten years! Ha, ha, ha!"

"What is it?" was asked, and as Mrs. Bowser put the query she noticed that his face was growing red.

"Man in Boston was walking along, and another man asked him for a match—ha, ha, ha!"

"What else?"

"Nothing else. Man just walking along, and another man asked him for a match. Think of it, Mrs. Bowser! Man comes right up to another man in Boston and asks for a match!"

"The weather does seem to have a strange effect on you. You had better go out and see if there are any signs of a cyclone."

"I will, dear. I guess that's what's the matter. Yes; I guess there's a regular old cyclone coming."

What Mrs. Bowser Saw.

For the third time he passed out of the front door. Mrs. Bowser tiptoed to the parlor window, whence she could get a view of the front steps, and she saw him descend and pick up a jug and raise it to his lips and take a hearty swig. He had evidently left the jug out there when he came from the office. She was back in her chair when he returned, and she quietly asked:

"Well, does the weather look cyclonic?"

"It does and it doesn't," he answered. "Never saw such queer weather. We may be going to have an earthquake. Oh, well, if it comes, it will come."

It was to be noticed that Mr. Bowser's hilarity had departed. He picked up the paper again and turned it over and over, but laid it down with a long drawn sigh and pathetically said:

"Mrs. Bowser, I should commit suicide if you were killed in an earthquake—I surely should!"

"I guess there's no danger."

"I hope not. If an earthquake shook this house down and the roof hit you on the ear and spared me I'd be the loneliest man in the world. I couldn't live. I'd be thinking of you all the time. I'd be thinking what a good woman you was."

"Haden't you better lie down on the lounge awhile?" suggested Mrs. Bowser, who saw that the jug was getting in its work.

"No, darling. I've got to sit up and protect you. When we was married I swore to protect you, didn't I? Well, I shall do it to the last drop of my blood. If a tiger was in this room and he was about to spring on you—"

"Mr. Bowser, you generally take a spring tonic about this time of year."

Creeps of Sadness.

"Yesh. I must see about it. It always does me good. Why is it that I feel so sad tonight? I'm thinking of graveyards and doctors all the time. Mrs. Bowser, I can't hardly look at you without crying."

She exposed herself for a moment and ran downstairs and brought the jug into the basement. When she reached Mr. Bowser again he had the cut in his lap, and the tears were rolling down his cheeks.

"I was thinking of how often I have tried to murder her," he explained. "Poor old cat! She can't help being a cat, you know."

Mrs. Bowser thought the evening might do Mr. Bowser good, and after a minute she said:

"I wish you would go out and see if there is any moon tonight."

"Moon? Moon? Mrs. Bowser, do you want 'er moon? If you do just say so and you shall have it."

"If there is a moon then we won't have a thunderstorm."

"I shee—I shee. Mrs. Bowser, you are a sharp woman—awful sharp. You know all about 'er moon, and I don't know a single thing. I'm no good. When I die I want you to put on my tombstone, 'Here Lays That Old Rip of a Bowser.' Yes, put that on and tell everybody I didn't know about 'er moon. What a sad world! How I should like to break down and cry!"

Mrs. Bowser got him down the hall and put his hat on and worked him outdoors and shut it after him. He stood for a minute to sniff the air and then carefully descended the steps and felt for the jug. It wasn't there.

Queries About the Jug.

"Do jugs have wings? Do jugs fly?" He straightened up. "No, of course not. Nobody ever heard of a jug walking away."

He stooped down again and felt all around on the stones, but there was no jug to further increase his sadness.

"Do jugs have wings? Do jugs fly? I left that jug right there, and now—" and now—"

Mrs. Bowser came out on the steps and asked:

"What are you looking for, dear?"

"I—I lost a shent down here."

"Sure it was a cent?"

"It was either a shent or a dollar, Mrs. Bowser, does a shent walk away?"

"Oh, no."

"Does 'er dollar have wings?"

"No. You'd better come in now and go to bed."

"Yes, I guess so. No thunderstorm—no cyclone—no moon. Just thinking all 'er time about doctors and tombstones and our old cat. I wish I wasn't sad, but how can I help it? This is Mrs. Bowser, ain't it?"

"Surely."

"Then I'll do just as she says. Mrs. Bowser good woman—mighty good woman."

When Mr. Bowser came down to breakfast next morning the jug sat beside his chair. He recognized it at a glance, but asked:

"What's this?"

"The cook found it at the area gate. It may be a spring tonic for you." The jug was lifted and part of a glass of its contents poured out. It was pure water.

Mr. Bowser looked at Mrs. Bowser with hardened eyes and said:

"If our cook has got so that she has to keep a jug around you let her go. What can the neighbors think of us to see a jug sitting at the basement door?"

INFLAMED KIDNEYS

Medical writers declare it incurable after the sixth month whether albuminous or not.

The average man prefers to think of it as "kidney trouble" and let it go but the census shows this appalling fact—out of 63,000 deaths from kidney troubles the last census year over nine-tenths of them (58,000) took the form called "Bright's Disease," although it is quite probable that nine-tenths of these up to the last moment thought of it as and called it "kidney trouble" when as a matter of fact the only possible hope laid through a specific for Bright's Disease.

There never was one until Fulton worked out his Renal emollient (Fulton's Renal Compound).

Since then inflammation of the kidneys whether albuminous or not or whether called "kidney trouble" or "Bright's Disease" or whether six months or six years old commonly yields, if you have had kidney trouble over six months no matter what you call it is the only hope. STORY HE MIGHT HAVE TOLD.

Former Vice President Fairbanks, who is said to be worth more than a million dollars, once had to borrow money to pay for the lunch of a Louisville newspaper man. The incident happened in Chicago a few years ago while Mr. Fairbanks was in the United States senate, says the Louisville Times.

The senator and the newspaper man were taking lunch in the Auditorium hotel. The waiter brought the checks, the senator ran his hand into his pocket, drew it out and looked embarrassed.

"Why, it's really funny," he remarked, with reddening countenance, "but do you know, I find I haven't got a cent in my pocket. You'll have to pay for my lunch."

An hour later the senator's check for $1,000 was promptly honored at the hotel office. "I'm sorry he didn't forget to pay me," the newspaper man said, "for in the light of honors that subsequently came to him, it wouldn't have been bad to be able to say that the vice president of the United States owed you seventy-five cents."

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

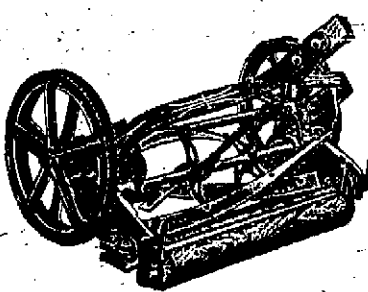

The primary cause of Rheumatism results from weak kidneys, constipation, indigestion, etc., forming impure accumulations in the system. These sour and ferment, causing uric acid, which is absorbed from the stomach and intestines into the blood. This changes the circulation from a thick, rich fluid to a thin, acid stream, depositing inflammatory matter into the muscles, nerves, and joints. The longer the blood is allowed to remain in this impure condition the more severe will Rheumatism become. Gradually the muscles harden and lose their elasticity, the joints begin to stiffen, and frequently calculus deposits form knots at the finger joints. There is just one way to CURE Rheumatism, and that is to cleanse the blood of the uric acid poison. S. S. S., by removing every particle of the cause and PURIFYING the blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. eliminates the uric acid because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It filters out every trace of the sour, inflammatory matter, cools the acid-heated blood, furnishes the material for multiplying the rich, nutritious corpuscles of the circulation, and by its fine tonic effects assists the system to rapidly overcome the effects of the disease. Special book on Rheumatism and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
